Pact

Yesterday

Agents manually serviced policies. Insurers were built with people and paperwork.

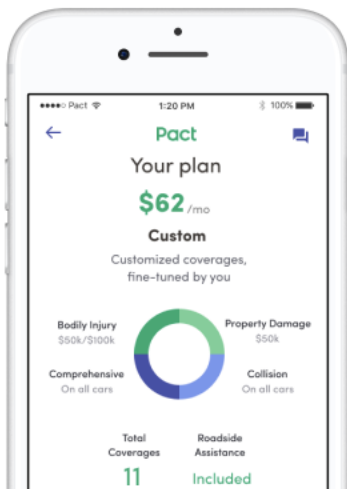

Today

Insurers sell the same policies online without agents. Behind the scenes, insurers continue to rely on people and yesterday's processes.

Now

Pact is built end-to-end with modern tech. Mobile gives you instant control. That means more efficient insurance, which means more savings for you.

P.S. We'll cancel your current policy for you.

What our customers are saying

“Cannot stress how much I love Pact’s app-based business model! I am stoked about their rates and they are saving me some serious money!”

Zoe

Switched from Progressive
Saving $83/month

“Pact has been awesome to work with. Even my wife, who is difficult to impress when it comes to good customer service, commented on how great your service was during a recent tow to an auto shop after an ice storm. I’m saving money versus my previous insurer with more coverage: I added GAP insurance to both vehicles, have $10 / month per vehicle for rental reimbursement, and raised my property damage liability from $100k to $250k.”

Tim
Findlay, OH

Switched from GEICO
Saving $16/month

“Pact literally cut my monthly rate in half for better coverages. Also, signing up for insurance has never been this easy. Pact took the pain point of shopping for insurance and solved it. It was so easy that it didn’t seem real!”
